Wells H. Keddie Scholarship

Dear Colleague,

AAUP-AFT is proud to announce the availability of the Wells H. Keddie Scholarship. The scholarship, awarded each year in the Spring, honors the memory of Wells H. Keddie, long-time labor activist, member of the AAUP-AFT Executive Council, and Professor Emeritus, of the department of Labor Studies and Employment Relations.

The scholarship will be awarded to an undergraduate student who

- is expected to have earned a total of 60-90 credits by June of the semester preceding the fellowship (normally a Junior)
- is enrolled in any of the Rutgers Undergraduate colleges
- combines solid scholarship with social activism

Nominations should be made by February 17, 2012. The award will be announced and distributed in the Spring 2012 semester.

The application/nomination process consists of the following:

- a letter of nomination by a faculty member, describing the student's involvement in activism, whether on/off-campus, and explaining why the student would be a good choice for this particular award
- a personal statement by the student, regarding both current activism and long-term goals
- a copy of the student's transcript
- a résumé listing the student's activities and responsibilities
- a letter of recommendation by a second faculty member
