

November 4, 2015

Dear Colleagues:

As we prepare for a year-long celebration of “Revolutionary Rutgers,” we are pleased to announce that the University and the Part-time Lecturer Faculty Chapter have reached a tentative agreement on a new three-year contract. In addition to annual salary increases that are retroactive to September 1, 2015, the agreement contains several innovative components in its recognition of seniority, professional development and career advancement.

More details, including the approval process for the contract, will be shared in the coming days by the PTLFC-AAUP-AFT.

We’d like to thank the negotiating teams on both sides for their service to Rutgers, our PTLs and our students.

Collegially,

Teresa Politano, President
PTLFC-AAUP-AFT

Karen R. Stubaus
Vice President for Academic Affairs and Administration